SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

COMMITTEE

Gabriela Padilla (310-390-5034)

Our second collection is for the Catechism classes for the children of our parish.

Thank you for your generosity.

La segunda colecta es para las clases de Catecismo para los niños de nuestra parroquia.

Gracias por su generosidad.

We welcome Fr. Charles Vijay Kumer, C.Ss.R to our parish.

I was born on June 6th 1981 in Bangalore, India. Being born in a family of two other siblings I have been blessed with a very loving and caring family. I felt the call to be a missionary priest and joined the Redemptorist Religious Community in the year 1997 at the age of 16. I professed my first vows in June 2004 and was ordained a priest on April 16, 2009. Since then, I have served as an associate pastor at Holy Redeemer parish in Bangalore, preached a number of popular parish missions and many youth retreats. Now I'm pursuing a graduate degree in Film productions at LMU, Los Angeles. St. Gerard Majella who is so dear to me, who is also a Redemptorist, I believe is the one who has brought me here to this parish, and I'm glad to be here.

Regards

Fr. Charles Vijay Kumar, C.Ss.R.

While he is pursuing his degree at Loyola Marymount University he will be living with us here at St. Gerard's.

Fr. Martin

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

EACH OF US IS A MASTERPIECE OF GOD'S CREATION.

Imagine yourself pausing in front of a design of great beauty. Your soul quiets and is filled with wonder and awe.

If art, created by man, can evoke such a response within us, how much more is the same wonder, reverence and respect due to each person we encounter, who was handcrafted by the very God who spoke the world into being?

Now think of an artist stepping back from a great work of art and admiring his or her creation.

When God created each of us, He did so with precision and purpose, and He looks on each of us with love that cannot be outdone in intensity or tenderness.

Moreover, the Lord invites each of us to behold ourselves and each other with the same wonder and awe.

No matter how the world might view us or others, let us treat each person as the masterpiece that he or she is.

“Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.”

RESPECT LIFE

God's truth is one. So we never want to fall into the trap of relativism, which says there are many "truths" and that all beliefs are equally true. And we never want to make the mistake of syncretism, trying to mix and match the good ideas we find in the world's religions, as if all religions are basically the same as ours. ~ Archbishop Jose H. Gomez

La verdad de Dios es solo una. Así que no queremos caer en la trampa del relativismo, que dice que hay muchas "verdades" y que todas las creencias son iguales. Y no queremos cometer el error de sincretismo, tratando de mezclar y combinar las buenas ideas que encontramos en las religiones del mundo, como si todas las religiones fueran básicamente igual que la nuestra. ~ Arzobispo José H. Gómez

Quotes of the Week

GUARDIANS FOR VALUABLE SOULS: So valuable to heaven is the dignity of the human soul that every member of the human race has a guardian angel from the moment the person begins to be. - St. Jerome

IMPOSSIBLE: Start by doing what is necessary, then do what is possible; suddenly you are doing the impossible. - St. Francis of Assisi

God's Word Today

No one alive can tell us what heaven is like. Today's scriptures give us an image to assist us in envisioning what it will be like when we rest in God's eternal presence. The banquet is a fitting image in so many ways. First of all, there are invitations issued to this banquet. Through our Baptism, we received an engraved invitation. We should be spending our lives preparing for the banquet, but other invitations come our way and distract us, luring us away from the great feast. Some people never accept the invitation. Others lose it along the way. And others simply say, "I cannot come." Today's scriptures are among the most challenging we ever hear because they ask us to examine our priorities. We know that everything in this world will pass away. Yet because of the sinful human condition, we hold on to things as if they will grant us salvation. Today is a day to rediscover the invitation to the banquet if it has been lost. Today is a day to let our hearts rejoice in the promise of the glorious banquet to come. ¿SABÍA USTED? Póngale alto a actividades inapropiadas antes que sucedan.

Enseñe a sus niños a respetar la palabra “alto”. Enseñe a sus hijos preescolares que “alto” significa “alto” y que sus hijos tienen el derecho de ponerle alto a personas que tocan su cuerpo. Obviamente, excepciones tendrán que ser hechas para los médicos y los padres, pero incluso los padres deben escuchar cuando un hijo no desea ser cosquilleado o abrazado. Reforzar esta excelente lección da a sus niños el poder de reconocer – y poner alto – al “contacto físico inapropiado” por parte de otros, si llegara a suceder.

Did You Know?

Learn to stop inappropriate activity before it happens.

Teach your child to respect the word “stop!” Teach your preschooler that “stop” means “stop,” and that your child has the right to stop people from touching his or her body. Obviously, exceptions will have to be made for doctors and parents, but even parents must listen when a child doesn’t want to be tickled or hugged anymore. Reinforcing this excellent lesson gives your child the power to recognize -- and to stop -- “bad touching” by others if it should happen.
